Science Museum Oklahoma (formerly Omniplex) is on the east side of Martin Luther King Ave, just south of Remington Park and west of the OKC Zoo. From I-35, exit onto 50th street and proceed west. From I-44, exit onto ML King and go south. The bright red dome of the SMO Dome Theater is a good landmark.

The entrance to SMO is on the north side of the building, fronting the large parking lot. Use the Main Entrance, which is the easternmost entrance, closest to the Zoo.
