

Book Announcement

Leadership In Action

Principles Forged in the Crucible of Military Service Can Lead Corporate America Back to the Top

From Greg Slavonic, Rear Admiral, U.S. Navy (Retired)

Greg Slavonic has brought together several contributors that would rightly be on a “Who’s Who” list of our nation’s most highly honored and decorated military leaders; two-, three- and four-star Generals, Admirals, Captains, Colonels and Commanders, war heroes and two Medal of Honor recipients—they know what it takes to lead and to succeed. In the pages of this book, you will find something that is critical to success in life—a philosophy of leadership that you can take for your own. By reading each chapter, giving thought to what you’ve read and applying what you’ve learned in action; a discerning reader will gain a thorough understanding of what real leaders are made of—and in the learning can become one too.

Available Now at Amazon and Barnes & Noble online

For volume or wholesale orders for this book, please contact:

Dennis Lowery

Phone: 904.223.0355

Email: DMLowery@Fortis-Publishing.com

Website: www.Fortis-Publishing.com

Book Information

Publisher: Fortis Publishing

Distributor: Ingram

ISBN: 978-0984551170

Type: Hardcover with dust jacket

Page count: 270

BUY NOW

About the Author

Rear Admiral Greg Slavonic, U.S. Navy (Ret) most recently served as the U.S. Navy’s Deputy to the Chief of Information in Washington, D.C., and Director of Public Affairs (Reserve) from June 2001 to 2005. In June 2004, Slavonic deployed to support Operation Enduring Freedom II. Assigned to the Multinational Force-Iraq (MNF-I) staff in Baghdad, Iraq, he served as the senior strategic communications and public affairs officer for Commanding General for MNF-I. He was the first U.S. Navy flag officer assigned to MNF-I and the highest-ranking public affairs officer in Iraq. In November 1990, Slavonic deployed for Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm. He was assigned to the staff of General H. Norman Schwarzkopf at U.S. Central Command. He earned a BS degree from Oklahoma State University and a Master’s degree from the University of Central Oklahoma. His military decorations include Legion of Merit Medal, Bronze Star Medal (two awards), Combat Action Ribbon and Presidential Unit Citation, plus numerous other service and campaign medals. He has three children and two grandchildren and resides in Oklahoma City with his wife Molly.